

Indemnity Agreement

The Indemnity Agreement is a contractual agreement between the indemnitor and the bonding agency in which, the indemnitor agrees to pay for potential losses or damages. It promises to make whole the individual or business for any covered loss. The Indemnity Agreement holds the surety and its agents harmless of all losses during the bond process.

Promissory Note

A Promissory Note is a written promise by the indemnitor to pay another party (surety) a specific sum of money, either on demand or at a specified date. A Promissory Note typically contains the amount the principal/indemnitor is responsible for during the bail bond process, the date of issuance, and the issuer's signature.

Disclosure Notice Principal

The Disclosure Notice is the conditions of the bond that the principal must follow until bond is discharged. It outlines that the surety, as bail will maintain control and jurisdiction over the principal (defendant or the person who the bail is being posted on behalf of) during the term for which the bond is executed and shall hold the right to apprehend, arrest, and surrender the principal to the governing authorities at any time as provided in Florida State Statute.

Indemnitor Information

The Indemnitor, also referred to as the co-signer, is the individual responsible for signing the bail agreement, and qualifying for the bond on behalf of the principal. The Indemnitor Information form details the terms and conditions for the indemnitor to follow until the bond is discharged.

Defendant Application for Appearance Bond

In accordance with Florida State Statute, any defendant posting bond shall apply in writing. "After the application is completed...the quantity and other conditions of the bond are determined" (F.S.S. 903.105). The Defendant Application for Appearance Bond form contains important information that the principal has to provide while on bond.
